

EVENING TIMES.

CAIRO, THURSDAY, SEPT. 14, 1865.

SIGNS AND TOKENS.

"Blessed is the man that maketh a short speech; he will be invited to come again."

Hon. Merritt Clark was chosen representative from Poughkeepsie, Vermont, at the annual election on Tuesday last.

The new British steamship Queen, from Liverpool, brought to New York fifteen hundred human beings in her steerage.

The Connecticut river is so low that it was flooded by a team at Hartford on Sunday—a circumstance which has not occurred before in the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

We are informed that Major-General Daniel E. Sickles has consented to deliver the opening address before the members of the New York American Institute, at the approaching exhibition.

It is announced that Marie, who is engaged for an opera tour in Scotland with Scrota, Marie Lallache, and others, has let his fine hotel to Mr. Bigelow, our minister at Paris.

The Woonsocket Patriot says the Boston, Hartford and Erie Railroad suddenly suspended operations some time since, and left every thing about there in a remarkably unfinished condition.

Fernando Wood returned from Europe in the City of Liverpool, after an absence of five months. He did not visit the Holy Land, as was given out when he started, but he was confidently expected at the New York democratic convention yesterday.

Barney Taylor will spend the summer of 1866 in Europe, visiting the relations of his wife in Germany, and in making a tour of Spain and Portugal. He will have a new novel ready for the press before the summer sets in.

At a young ladies' assembly recently, during an examination in history, one of the most promising pupils were interrogated: "Mary did Martin Luther die a natural death?" "No," was the reply, "he was excommunicated by a bull!"

Mr. Henry Cope, widely known as a Philadelphia merchant and a philanthropist, died on Monday at Germantown, Penn., in his seventy-second year. He was a partner in the firm of Cope Brothers.

An investigation of the circumstances attending the sinking of the steamer Pesado, on Lake Erie, shows the officers of the steamer to be to blame for the terrible disaster, and their licenses as pilots have been taken away—not their lives or their liberty.

In one of our courtly tales, a man who was called on to appear as a witness could not be found. On the judge asking where he was, an elderly gentleman rose up, and with much emphasis said, "Your honor, he's gone." "Gone gone?" said the judge, "where's he gone?" "That I cannot inform you," replied the communicative gentleman, "but he's dead." This is considered the best-guarded answer on record.

The Dubuque Times says: A little five year old boy who was very anxious to see the great Military Chieftain, desired his father to point him out to him. His pa. lifted him in his arms and did so. "Is that little short man with the dusty hat and coat General Grant, Pa?" "Yes, my son," said the father. "Oh, pshaw!" said he, "What a General!"
